++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Staying dry and fine.

Today:
Dry with warm sunny periods for most, highest temperatures over southern and western parts of Scotland. Cloudier over far northern Scotland and for some central parts of England. Becoming cloudier for some North Sea coastal areas later.

Tonight:
Cloud and a little drizzle in the east slowly moving westwards with clear spells arriving from the North Sea later. Some fog patches in the west.

Thursday:
Dry with sunny spells for most but cloudier over Northern Ireland, south Wales and southwest England. Perhaps the odd shower for eastern coasts. Cooler in the east with brisk winds.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Most places dry with variable cloud and sunny spells. Isolated showers in central and southeast areas on Saturday. Some light rain or drizzle at times around coasts in the north.
